Rotary Program: April 22, 2015
Program Chair: Darrell Maynard
Speaker: Marty Childers, Executive Director—Jenny Wiley Theatre

Marty Childers brought with him a troupe of actors from the upcoming spring and summer productions at Jenny Wiley Theater.

He turned it over to Tim Murray, the narrator to introduce the songs and to explain the background information of which each production is a part. He also introduced each actor and their hometown as they performed their particular piece. The first two numbers were taken from the production called "The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee," a take on how children participated in the spelling bee and the hilarious episodes of emotional and mental stress with which they endure. The song was entitled "Woe Is Me!" about a little girl who could not remember the spelling of a word and blamed anyone and everyone involved for her predicament. Then we heard the beautiful harmony of the whole group singing "My Friend, The Dictionary", as another girl was given a word to spell, but was so distracted by her wandering mental exercises about the wonderful book she loved so well. The last number came from the play "Little Shop Of Horrors" entitled "Suddenly Seymour", another example of the extraordinary vocal talents and harmonies of the whole group. All the participants are based in New York, here to spend a month on the Jenny Wiley stage before returning to either their homes or on to other acting engagements or auditions. They were (in no particular order): Tim Murray, Melissa D'Anna, Hannah Zilver, Nick Flatto, James Roberts, Brooke Singer, Jimmy Lewis, Matthew Cardenas, and Lora Nicolas. The

Preacher in Heaven

A preacher dies, and when he gets to Heaven, he sees a New York cab driver who has more crowns. He says to an angel, "I don't get it. I devoted my whole life to my congregation." The angel says, "We reward results. Did your congregation always pay attention when you gave a sermon?" The preacher says, "Once in a while someone fell asleep." The angel says, "Right. And when people rode in this guy's taxi, they not only stayed awake, but they usually prayed!"

Bandit

A Mexican bandit made a specialty of crossing the Rio Grande from time to time and robbing banks in Texas. Finally, a reward was offered for his capture, and an enterprising Texas ranger decided to track him down. After a lengthy search, he traced the bandit to his favorite cantina, snuck up behind him, put his trusty six-shooter to the bandit's head, and said, "You're under arrest. Tell me where you hid the loot or I'll blow your brains out." But the bandit didn't speak English, and the Ranger didn't speak Spanish. Fortunately, a bilingual lawyer was in the saloon and translated the Ranger's message. The terrified bandit blurted out, in Spanish, that the loot was buried under the oak tree in back of the cantina. "What did he say?" asked the Ranger. The lawyer answered, "He said 'Get lost, you turkey. You wouldn't dare shoot me.'"
